THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE AND THE DOMINANT RACE.

The New York Tribune in a late article under the above title, compares the Southern and Northern States...

1. The Old Confederacy and the Constitution of the United States were almost entirely of Southern origin and conception.

2. It is a singular fact that the Northern politicians themselves seldom or never set their own statements as authority on any subject of construction.

3. Look at the history of the government under the different administrations, for an indication of the relative administrative capacity of the South and the North.

Northern Presidents: George Washington, James Madison, James Monroe, Andrew Jackson, John Tyler, James K. Polk.

Southern Presidents: John Adams, John Quincy Adams, Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Johnson, Abraham Lincoln.

Now, what more is necessary to give point to all we could say under this head, than to extend the list at the two columns will convey to the mind of the intelligent reader, either North or South.

On the one side, behold the Federal Government successfully inaugurated and from small beginnings marching onward in steady and glorious progress.

On the other side, behold the Southern States, a vanquished people, a vanquished people, a vanquished people, a vanquished people.

THE BLACK REPUBLICAN UNION MEN.

In Wigfall's late characteristic "showing up" of Andy Johnson, in the Senate, we clip the following which illustrates Northern Unionism quite as well as Andy Johnson's.

I recollect, sir, some twenty years ago, reading a book which was called Paul Clifford. Peggy Look of the Mail, who was a very sagacious woman, had the education of little Paul entrusted to her care.

THE TWO PRESIDENTS. Davis and Lincoln were both born in Kentucky in 1802, respectively—both left their native State in childhood's days; one emigrated North and the other South; both served in the Indian wars of the West; both commenced their political careers about the same time, being Presidential Electors in the election of 1828.

A HORRID PYRAMID OF SERPENTS.—A traveler in South America, in the savannas of Icacabou, in Guayana, saw the most terrible spectacle that can be seen; and although it is not uncommon to the inhabitants, no traveler has ever mentioned it.

That if it were left to the women of N C to vote she would elect only secedes—called attention to the great contrast between President Davis and Lincoln—North Carolinians love the North and love the South, the North the Eagle, but it is the Eagle on the half of the globe.

What says the senior editor of the Observer? "N. C. Standard to this? Will they dare utter such anti-Southern, perfectly untrue and untrue? What! did the black republicans in Shading Southern blood! simple because they are contending for the rights of the domestic institutions? Any Southern feeling as to such sentiments, should receive the just retribution of this, and we should not be the least surprised to learn, (for we were told that he has no interest in Mississippi) that the next time he visits that State, (if not before he returns) that he is intended to "take upon a Congressional District."

Wilmington, N. C. Wilmington Journal North Carolinian, State Rights "Whig" papers will copy.

To THE PUBLIC.—In the North Carolinian of the 16th of February last, there appeared an article under the signature of a certain individual, intended to injure my good name, among those to whom I am a stranger, and, therefore, lest silence on my part be construed into an admission of the truth of the charge there contained, I beg leave to place myself in a position to obtrude myself upon the public's notice in any manner, particularly in defence from the attacks of a nameless scandal monger, whose very language wants the evidences of common decency, but which case is done? I have, thought a friend, applied to the Editor of this paper, for the name of the author, and I have been informed that if I desired him for the purpose of calling him to the field, I can have it. The alternative is one which I would be unchristian and illegal to accept, and unpleasant to adopt, even towards a gentleman. Not feeling disposed to treat the author of the article as an enemy, for the reason that "a gentleman would not insult me, and no other can," and having no disposition to boot the Editor of this paper, nor to be shot by him, I am left only the privilege of the use of my column to reply. When I shall have done this, the business of the article will be closed, and myself, will be apparent; just the difference that there is in charging one with having told a political lie, and calling a witness a deliberate falsehood yourself.

I am charged by this character, under first, with the author of certain resolutions set forth in the Fayetteville Observer, of the date of February 4th! In the second place, it is said that "no such resolutions were offered to the meeting!" I am compared to an "old horse," with a "thick hide and short memory," and in the last place, it has been said of me that I have "been thrashing, for telling political lies! I will not descend to the vulgar level of 'Harrison's Creek,' and say (as I might with truth do,) that he has old absolute lies, but I will proceed to make statements and support them by the certificate of gentlemen, who are both right and true, and that Harrison's Creek has told several things which are not true in any respect. I state, in the first place, that I obtained the resolutions alluded to in the Fayetteville Observer, as he has repeated them to me from his memory, (which I am prepared to prove if the Chairman denies it) and that they were offered to the meeting by the Committee who were appointed to draft resolutions, for the action of it, and that I am not the author of them, and that the resolutions were not adopted. The subject of the certificate will substantiate all this, and, therefore, this charge is not a political lie, on my part. I will state in the second place, that if I were half as mean like an "old horse," as this dirty genius "Harrison's Creek" is like another animal of the name, I would not have been in the case, and total want of decorum, I might, in some respect, be obnoxious to the charge of having a "short memory." Harrison's Creek goes further into years (and I am sure, in order to save my back from a political thrashing, he had to leave the White Oak, or anywhere else, or telling lies of any sort, or for anything else. He knows this charge to be false. He knew it to be so when he penned it, and there is not a man in Wadeson County, or in the State of North Carolina, who will testify that it is true.—except Harrison's Creek and those who, like him, will "win slanders like a mint."

The public, I know, will excuse me for this seeming obtrusion. I desire to vindicate my character, because I value it. Those among whom I was born and bred, have attributed the resolutions to me, and I have been obliged to join, certified in my behalf. I respectfully call attention to it. Harrison's Creek's business in life ought to have been to tell the following thing: "To tell the plain truth at all times. To deal squarely with all men. To stand no man's man in reputation. To stand himself upon high and honorable ground, and to suffer much he may be inclined to the use of Mrs. Mackintosh's one.—To quit the level of bad men, and to do unto others as he would be done by."

Respectfully,
Wm. W. Alder, JR. DUNHAM.

The undersigned, Citizens of the County of Bladen, residents of White Oak Precinct, and neighbors of Mr. Joseph V. Dunham, respectfully certify that he is a young man of good character, that most of us have known him from his infancy, and that we have never heard of his having been charged with telling falsehoods of any kind, prior to the charge made against him in the North Carolinian of the 16th of February last, which charge we believe to be entirely groundless and unwarranted. Some of us marked "present," were present at the meeting, to which reference was made, (the meeting held on the 12th of January last) and we know that the resolutions spoken of, were presented by the committee, of which Mr. Joseph V. Dunham was not a member, that he was not offered by him; that he is not the author of them, and did not endeavor to have them passed, but on the contrary, opposed their adoption. We further certify that the resolutions spoken of, as published in the Fayetteville Observer, were not precisely the same as were offered and rejected by that meeting, similar in error essential particular to those that were reported by the Committee to the meeting by the meeting. We further certify that we never heard of his having had to leave the White Oak, or anywhere else, for the reason assigned in the article signed "Harrison's Creek," or for any other cause.

A Republican paper in Wisconsin has the following:—"We have been to the expense of having a cannon engraved to adorn our columns the morning when we should receive the news of the re-entrance of Fort Sumter. But what shall we do the day after tomorrow?—The engraving of a cannon sitting on the head of a dispirited man."
